Now that you have looked over your exam, estimate the percentage of points, out of 100%, you lost due to each of the following:

  _____ % from not understanding a concept
  _____ % from not being careful (i.e. arithmetic mistakes, etc)
  _____ % from not being able to formulate an approach to a problem
  _____ % from other reasons (please specify: ________________________________________________)

Based on the estimates above, what will you do differently in preparing for the final? For instance, will you change your study habits or try to sharpen particular skills? Please be specific. Also, what can we do to help?
